Different types of travel require different processes in the completion of the forms and back up documentation.

BLANKET: Is for a Single traveler making repeated trips to the same locations and is open for no more than the current fiscal year. This is typically expenses for mileage which is submitted as a partial reimbursement once the amount reaches approximately $100.00 or the end of the fiscal year.