Native Alaskan Business Leaders
Who we are:

Native Alaskan Business Leaders (NABL) is a UAF chapter of the American Indian Business Leaders (AIBL) organization. NABL supports Native Alaskan and American Indian students interested in business, rural economic development, and other related areas.

What we do:

- Engage students in business activities, building self-esteem, leadership skills, community involvement, and teamwork
- Provide an extended family support system to help students facilitate the transition from life at home to life at UAF
- Create and maintain a strong networking system among UAF NABL members and other AIBL chapters located throughout the U.S.
