Include information on the Programs/Departments contacted (e.g., email, memo)
No programs/departments will be affected by this course.

21. POSITIVE AND NEGATIVE IMPACTS
Please specify positive and negative impacts on other courses, programs and departments resulting from the proposed action.

There are no negative impacts on any other programs.

JUSTIFICATION FOR ACTION REQUESTED
The purpose of the department and campus-wide curriculum committees is to scrutinize course change and new course applications to make sure that the quality of UAF education is not lowered as a result of the proposed change. Please address this in your response. This section needs to be self-explanatory. Use as much space as needed to fully justify the proposed course.

One credit RELG courses have been offered for the past few semesters, and have had a growing interest. Students have an interest in this particular topic area. Students have appreciated this forum for knowledge acquisition and discussion.

ATTACH COMPLETE SYLLABUS (as part of this application).
Note: syllabus must follow the guidelines discussed in the Faculty Senate Guide http://www.uaf.edu/afgof/faculty/cd/syllabus.html.
The department and campus wide curriculum committees will review the syllabus to ensure that each of the items listed below are included. If items are missing or unclear, the proposed course change will be denied.

SYLLABUS CHECKLIST FOR ALL UAF COURSES
During the first week of class, instructors will distribute a course syllabus. Although modifications may be made throughout the semester, this document will contain the following information (as applicable to the discipline):

1. Course information:
   - Title, number, credits, prerequisites, location, meeting time (make sure that contact hours are in line with credits).

2. Instructor (and if applicable, Teaching Assistant) information:
   - Name, office location, office hours, telephone, email address.

3. Course readings/materials:
   - Supplementary readings (indicate whether required or recommended) and any supplies required.

4. Course description:
   - Content of the course and how it fits into the broader curriculum;
   - Expected proficiencies required to undertake the course, if applicable.
   - Inclusion of catalog description is strongly recommended, and
   - Description in syllabus must be consistent with catalog course description.

5. Course Goals (general) and Student Learning Outcomes (more specific)

6. Instructional methods:
   - Describe the teaching techniques (eg: lecture, case study, small group discussion, private instruction, studio instruction, values clarification, games, journal writing, use of Blackboard, audio/video conferencing, etc.).

7. Course calendar:
   - A schedule of class topics and assignments must be included. Be specific so that it is clear that the instructor has thought this through and will not be making it up on the fly (e.g. it is not adequate to say “lab”.
     Instead, give each lab a title that describes its content). You may call the outline Tentative or Work in Progress to allow for modifications during the semester.

8. Course policies:
   - Specify course rules, including your policies on attendance, tardiness,
     class participation, make-up exams, and plagiarism/academic integrity.

9. Evaluation:
   - Specify how students will be evaluated, what factors will be included, their relative value, and how they will be tabulated into grades (on a curve, absolute scores, etc.)

10. Support Services:
    - Describe the student support services such as tutoring (local and/or regional) appropriate for the course.

11. Disabilities Services:
    The Office of Disability Services implements the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), and insures that UAF students have equal access to the campus and course materials.
    - State that you will work with the Office of Disabilities Services (203 WHIT, 474-7043) to provide reasonable accommodation to students with disabilities.”

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

An exploration into ancient traditions of magic as evidenced by Mesopotamian, Egyptian, Biblical, and Graeco-Roman texts and artifacts, focusing upon their rationales, methods, efficacy, and legitimacy with respect to variously preventing, mitigating, or invoking harmful and destructive forces.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF GOALS:

The instructor's goals for this course are, simply, to foster the student learning outcomes and objectives—namely:

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES / OBJECTIVES:

To acquaint the student with representative ancient texts and material artifacts pertaining to the magical arts in the Near Eastern and Mediterranean worlds; to investigate the methods and rationales for invoking magic; to explore the underlying notions of cosmology and causality that animated ancient magic. At the conclusion of this course, the diligent student will be capable of broadly sketching the places and purposes of magic within each of the ancient cultures surveyed (Egyptian, Sumerian, Assyrian, Babylonian, Israelite, Greek, Roman). The student will also be able to reflect critically upon how the magical relates—both historically and contemporarily—to the religious and the scientific.

INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS:

This course will be conducted in a lecture–seminar format, featuring presentations by the instructor designed to involve the students in vibrant discussions about the materials and topics at hand. Visual media will be incorporated (chiefly PowerPoint and illustrative handouts) to provide a more vivid context for reflection and conversation.

COURSE CALENDAR:

1st week: CLASS 1: Living Amid the Demonic and Deathly
Ancient causalities and coping strategies.

Readings:
Witchcraft in Zimbabwe
Witch-Eating Cannibals in New Guinea 2nd week: CLASS 2: Reactive Magic

Julius Caesar and his diviners
Macbeth and his witches
Hamlet and his father’s ghost
Salem, The Visible and Invisible Worlds
Salem, April 1692
COURSE POLICIES:

This single credit course is designed to appeal to students who are attracted to its subject matter and/or to fulfilling core academic requirements toward UAF Associate and/or Bachelor degrees. For students who audit, the standards are ultimately self-imposed. For those who take this course for credit, consistent and prompt attendance is mandatory, as is timely reading of the assignments. The final project is also required, as well as a bona fide intellectual curiosity and respectfulness toward the subject matter and fellow class participants. Plagiarism and other academic dishonesty are intolerable, and will be forwarded to the appropriate college authorities for disciplinary measures.

EVALUATION:

Auditing is permitted. Letter grades for credit will be determined according to the following formula:

20%  Class preparation (readings and reflections upon the texts and secondary literature).
30%  Class participation (attendance, questions and comments, active involvement in the discussion of material).
50%  Final project (short paper [5–7 pp.] required for credit; students will have a choice from among a limited number of relevant topics/motifs provided and/or approved by the instructor).
