12. IMPACTS ON PROGRAMS/DEPTS:

What programs/departments will be affected by this proposed action?
Include information on the Programs/Departments contacted (e.g., email, memo)

There will be no program impact.

13. POSITIVE AND NEGATIVE IMPACTS

Please specify positive and negative impacts on other courses, programs and departments resulting from the proposed action.

No changes with negative impact. Positive impact will be improved hands on practice for appropriate curriculum development for infants and toddlers.
There will be no program impact.

19. POSITIVE AND NEGATIVE IMPACTS
Please specify positive and negative impacts on other courses, programs and departments resulting from the proposed action.

No changes with negative impact. Positive impact will be improved hands on practice for appropriate curriculum development for infants and toddlers.

JUSTIFICATION FOR ACTION REQUESTED
The purpose of the department and campus-wide curriculum committees is to scrutinize course change and new course applications to make sure that the quality of UAF education is not lowered as a result of the proposed change. Please address this in your response. This section needs to be self-explanatory. If you ask for a change in # of credits, explain why; are you increasing the amount of material covered in the class? If you drop a prerequisite, is it because the material is covered elsewhere? If course is changing to stacked (400/500), explain higher level of effort and performance required on part of students earning graduate credit. Use as much space as needed to fully justify the proposed change and explain what has been done to ensure that the quality of the course is not compromised as a result.

With the program changes taking place, the CDFS program faculty and staff have carefully looked at the courses currently provided within the program. ECE 320 was originally developed without a practica piece. The CDFS staff and Faculty have made the changes for all curriculum supporting courses, that are not foundational will have field experience requirements. Through student responses, it is realized that students understand the course content of curriculum development courses better if they have a hands on opportunity for development of hypothesis, experimentation, practice and reflection. This activity not only helps them construct knowledge of their skills and understanding, but also develops understanding of why this same process is valuable for young children as well.

ECE 320 will now have 20 hours of field experience within an infant and toddler environment. As in the Curriculum and Teaching concentration, all Infant and Toddler concentration curriculum courses will contain field experiences that will build as a continuum towards the concentration capstones ECE 472 and ECE 473.

With ECE 320 being a requirement within the new proposed Infant and Toddler concentration, ECE 320 will be offered regularly each fall rather than as demand warrants.

ECE 320 may be taught within a 10-week or traditional 15-week semester schedule. The attached syllabus demonstrates a 10-week schedule.

Course Description:
Roles and practices adults take for supporting learning and development in infants and toddlers aged birth – 3 years of age. Stresses the adoption of the child’s individual abilities and interests while supporting their exploration, discovery, relationship building and problem solving through environment development. Prominence for family inclusion in curriculum development through reciprocal relationships.
ECE 320 is required for the Child Development and Family Studies BA program within the Infant and Toddler concentration.
Course Goal:
Understanding of components needed for appropriate development of environments and curriculum for infants and toddlers.

Student Learning Objectives/Outcomes:
Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:
1. Explain what is meant by the terms and use of “environment” and “curriculum” for infants and toddlers.
2. Articulate the distinctions between curriculum for infants and toddlers and curriculum for older children.
3. Describe the aspects of early care and education that are a part of an infant/toddler curriculum and environment.
4. Outline strategies for engaging families in developing and implementing individualized curriculum for infants and toddlers.
5. Explain how Individualized Family Service Plans can support curriculum and inclusion of infants and toddlers with special needs.
6. Design an appropriate group space environment for infants and toddlers.
7. Formulate an individual curriculum plan for a specific infant or toddler.

NAEYC Standards addressed in this course:
Standard 1: Promoting child development and learning
Key elements
- 1a: Knowing and understanding young children’s characteristics and needs
- 1c: Using developmental knowledge to create healthy, respectful, supportive, and challenging learning environments.

Standard 2: Building and Community Relationships
Key elements
- 2a: Knowing about and understanding family and community characteristics
- 2b: Supporting and empowering families and communities through respectful, reciprocal relationships
- 2c: Involving families and communities in their children’s development and learning

Standard 3: Observing, documenting, and assessing to support young children and Families
Key elements
- 3b: Knowing about and using observation, documentation, and other appropriate assessment tools and approaches

Standard 4: Teaching and learning
Key elements:
- 4a: Knowing, understanding, and using positive relationships and supportive interactions
- 4b: Knowing, understanding, and using effective approaches, strategies, and tools for early education

Instructional Methods:
The method of instruction will be a combination of reading assignments, Blackboard (Bb), audio conferencing and field assignments. Students will demonstrate their proficiency of knowledge development and skill through assignments and discussion. All assignments will be communicated through assignments within the content section of the course Bb site. Other communication outside of class will be completed through email, phone or face to face visits.

Requirements and Assignments:
Upper Division writing and critical analysis skills are required for this course. Written assignments and projects are to be formatted using APA and typed. Font size should be 10 – 12, depending on the type of font. Spacing between lines should be 2.0. Black ink on white paper is strongly preferred. Color graphics are acceptable, but not necessary.

- Written Assignments: There will be 5 written assignments which respond to readings, class discussion and videos that will be watched. Topics for written responses will be developed out of the class discussions that take place throughout the class meetings.

- Discussion Facilitations: The class will be divided into small groups. Each person within the group will be responsible for planning and facilitation of small group discussions. The lead person will turn in their facilitation plan and discussion questions to the instructor and shared with small group participants at least 3 days prior to the small group meeting.

- Course Project: The final course project will be divided into two parts. An in-depth environment plan inclusive of complete written description detailing all parts and reasons for the parts. An individualized curriculum plan designed for a specific child aged infant through 2 years of age. A complete description of the child, specific learning outcome goals, specific activity plans and reflection on why this is the appropriate plan for this child. Inclusion of parents as partners in their child’s education and development as well as home activity will be included.

- Final Reflection: This will be a complete documentation of your knowledge acquisition and skill growth around the area of environment and curriculum development for infants and toddlers. Remember, as in other classes, your work may be something you wish to include in your final program portfolio as you share your own development and learning around child development and the infant/toddler concentration.

Course Evaluation:
A letter grade will be issued for participants. (Note that you must receive a C or higher for this course to count towards your Child Development Family Study BA Degree. Grading is based on:

Your resource for transcripts, accounts and other personal information

Disabilities Services:
The Child Development and Family Studies program will work with the Office of Disability Services to provide reasonable accommodation to students with disabilities. Disability Services provide a variety of services to assure equal access for all students. Interpreting services, educational assistants, note taking, and exam accommodations for students are the most frequently provided accommodations.

The Office of Disability Services implements the American with Disabilities Act (ADA), and insures that the UAF students have equal access to the campus and course materials. (203 WHIT, 474-7043) I will work with the Office of Disabilities Services to provide reasonable accommodation to students with disabilities.

Disability services also provides assistance to the university’s rural campuses. Bristol Bay, Chuckchi, Interior-Aleutians, Kuskokwim, and Northwest. Questions should be directed to the Director of Disability Services at (907) 474-5655 or online at http://www.uaf.edu/disability/

Representatives from the office also regularly meet students in the CTCC building. Check with the CTCC student services for more information, 455-2851 or 2849.

Rural Student Services (RSS) is an academic advising department with over 35 years of experience in working with students from all over the state of Alaska. We are here to assist you in achieving student success by linking you to current information pertinent to your education, lifestyle, and goals. RSS is known for its welcoming and friendly environment. Many students find meaningful connection at UAF through RSS. We can help you with:
- Academic requirements
- Registration for classes
- Finding financial aid
- Explaining housing options
- Declaring a major
- Career exploration

Computer, Internet and Software

Problem: you cannot get your email Make sure your Internet connection is working; to test it, you can try to go to a new web page and see if it loads.
- If you are having problems with a UAF account, you will need to contact the UAF help desk 1.800.478.4667. If it is another company’s account, you will need to contact their customer support. There is very little we can do to assist you as we have no control or access to the computers that serve the email.
- Check with your email program’s Help.

Problem: you forgot your password
• Only the organization that issued your password can do anything to change it. You will need to contact them. For UAF email and Blackboard it is the UAF help desk 1.800.478.4667. For most web services there is a link you can click if you forgot your password. I also recommend writing them down somewhere for backup.
