   - ED:
   - Course #: F652
   - No. of Credits: 2
   - Justify upper/lower division status & number of credits:
     This course is designed for students admitted to the PhD in Interdisciplinary Studies. Graduate level readings, writing assignments, and presentations are a part of the course content.

3. PROPOSED COURSE TITLE:
   Presenting Social Science Research Results

4. To be CROSS LISTED?
   - YES/NO
   - If yes, Dept:
   - Course #:
   - NOTE: Cross-listing requires approval of both departments and deans involved. Add lines at end of form for additional required signatures.

5. To be STACKED?
   - YES/NO
   - How will the two course levels differ from each other? How will each be taught at the appropriate level?

   * Use only one Format 1 form for the stacked course (not one for each level of the course!) and attach syllabi. Stacked course applications are reviewed by the (Undergraduate) Curricular Review Committee and the Graduate Academic and Advising Committee. Creating two different syllabi (undergraduate and graduate versions) will help emphasize the different qualities of what are supposed to be two different courses. The committees will determine: 1) whether the two versions are sufficiently different (i.e., is there undergraduate and graduate level content being offered); 2) are undergraduates being overtaxed?; 3) are graduate students being undertaxed? In this context, the committees are looking out for the interests of the students taking the course. Typically, if either committee has qualms, they both do. More info online – see URL at top of this page.

6. FREQUENCY OF OFFERING:
   - As Demand Warrants
   - Fall, Spring, Summer (Every, or Even-numbered Years, or Odd-numbered Years) — or As Demand Warrants

ED F652 Presenting Social Science Research Results

2 Credits
Offered As Demand Warrants
Data presentation techniques for social science research. Investigations into presenting qualitative and/or statistical analysis results within the context of social science research. Includes use of SPSS and Atlas.ti. This course as the sixth and final of the series concludes the process with a focus on data presentation from a holistic perspective. Topics included are specialized to support the research design, methodology and data collection efforts of the peer group.

Prerequisites: ED F651
Lecture + Lab + Other: 2 + 0 + 0
Restrictions on Enrollment (if any)

14. PREREQUISITES
   ED 651 Analyzing Social Science Research

   These will be required before the student is allowed to enroll in the course.

15. SPECIAL RESTRICTIONS, CONDITIONS
   Permission of instructor

16. PROPOSED COURSE FEES
   None
   Has a memo been submitted through your dean to the Provost for fee approval?

17. PREVIOUS HISTORY
   Has the course been offered as special topics or trial course previously?
   Yes/No
   If yes, give semester, year, course #, etc.: LAS 699 in Spring 2012

18. ESTIMATED IMPACT
   WHAT IMPACT, IF ANY, WILL THIS HAVE ON BUDGET, FACILITIES/SPACE, FACULTY, ETC.

   This course will be taught through Blackboard Collaborate. There will be no impact on space or facilities. The class will be added to an existing faculty member's workload. Tuition from course participants will cover the instructor salary and benefits.

19. LIBRARY COLLECTIONS
   Have you contacted the library collection development officer (kljensen@alaska.edu, 474-6695) with regard to the adequacy of library/media collections, equipment, and services available for the proposed course? If not, explain why not.
   No  X  Yes

   Adequate resources available

20. IMPACTS ON PROGRAMS/DEPTS
   What programs/departments will be affected by this proposed action?
   Include information on the Programs/Departments contacted (e.g., email, memo)

   The School of Education Graduate Program will be impacted:
   - Possible increase in enrollment in graduate level education classes due to interest by PhD students in education coursework.
   - Possible increase in the number of Interdisciplinary PhD applicants with an education focus creating the necessity for School of Education faculty to serve as committee chairs and committee members on PhD committees.
   Other graduate program may be impacted:
   - As the students in this class will be Interdisciplinary PhD students taking courses from more than one academic department, there may be an increase in enrollment in graduate classes of other departments
   - As INDS PhD students select committee members from more than one department, faculty members in other academic departments may be asked to serve on committees.

21. POSITIVE AND NEGATIVE IMPACTS
   Please specify positive and negative impacts on other courses, programs and departments resulting from the proposed action.

   Positive: Provides INDS students a sense of community and the opportunity to share and receive feedback on their research from other students. Supports INDS PhD students in learning research methods. Improves the quality of dissertations.

   Negative: May require more support from faculty than they are able to provide as it leads to an increase in enrollment of INDS PhD students, often distance-based students.

   Impact on Other Courses: Most of the courses that may offer something similar at UAF are through PSY, BIOL, ANTH, COMM, LING, NORS and CHEM. The PSY courses are only open to Psychology students. The BIOL, CHEM do not address the same concepts due to specific research methods. There may be negative impact on those research courses listed as ANTH, COMM, LING, NORS; however, most INDS students may not be eligible for these based on their background or they may not apply if students have chosen a methodology that does not align with the methods taught in the course.
JUSTIFICATION FOR ACTION REQUESTED

The purpose of the department and campus-wide curriculum committees is to scrutinize course change and new course applications to make sure that the quality of UAF education is not lowered as a result of the proposed change. Please address this in your response. This section needs to be self-explanatory. Use as much space as needed to fully justify the proposed course.

Most students who have taken this course in trial format have been mid-career professionals who are working full-time and wish to pursue an Interdisciplinary PhD. The series of courses provides a foundation for research that encompasses qualitative, quantitative, and mixed methods allowing for balance and support for the interdisciplinary approach. As part of the series, this course supports students in engaging in their research from a distance and supports doctorate committee chairs in ensuring that distance students are moving forward on their work. The course focuses on the process of doing research and not the specific content. In that way, students along with their chairs and committee make the decisions about the research content, design, methodology, methods, and timeline, as should be the case. The course provides students a place to engage in those decisions, share their progress and receive feedback from an instructor who is an interdisciplinary researcher and other professionals moving through a similar process with their own committee. Since the series of courses focuses on the research process it goes into more depth than ED 601 and ED 603 that currently exist. As distance students who traditionally work full-time in addition to their studies the peer group and established meeting time that runs for three years provides the accountability and foundation upon which is engage in dissertation work while expanding their understanding of methods from a multitude of fields.

This course as the sixth and final of the series concludes the process with a focus on data presentation of social science research results from a holistic perspective. Topics included are specialized to support the research design, methodology and data collection efforts of the peer group.

The Faculty Senate curriculum committees will review the syllabus to ensure that each of the items listed below are included. If items are missing or unclear, the proposed course (or changes to it) may be denied.

SYLLABUS CHECKLIST FOR ALL UAF COURSES
During the first week of class, instructors will distribute a course syllabus. Although modifications may be made throughout the semester, this document will contain the following information (as applicable to the discipline):

1. Course information:
   - Title, number, credits, prerequisites, location, meeting time (make sure that contact hours are in line with credits).

2. Instructor (and if applicable, Teaching Assistant) information:
   - Name, office location, office hours, telephone, email address.

3. Course readings/materials:
   - Course textbook title, author, edition/publisher.

   - Describe the teaching techniques (eg: lecture, case study, small group discussion, private instruction, studio instruction, values clarification, games, journal writing, use of Blackboard, audio/video conferencing, etc.).

8. Course calendar:
   - A schedule of class topics and assignments must be included. Be specific so that it is clear that the instructor has thought this through and will not be making it up on the fly (e.g. it is not adequate to say “lab”. Instead, give each lab a title that describes its content). You may call the outline Tentative or Work in Progress to allow for modifications during the semester.

9. Course policies:
   - Specify course rules, including your policies on attendance, tardiness, class participation, make-up exams, and plagiarism/academic integrity.

10. Evaluation:
    - Specify how students will be evaluated, what factors will be included, their relative value, and how they will be tabulated into grades (on a curve, absolute scores, etc.) Publicize UAF regulations with regard to the grades of "C" and below as applicable to this course. (Not required in the syllabus, but is a convenient way to publicize this.) Link to PDF summary of grading policy for "C": http://www.uaf.edu/files/uafgov/Info-to-Publicize-C_Grading-Policy-UPDATED-May-2013.pdf

11. Support Services:
    - Describe the student support services such as tutoring (local and/or regional) appropriate for the course.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Course Goals: To provide INDS PhD peer group students options of data presentation for qualitative and/or quantitative methods and guidance on presentation applications with software packages.

To achieve these goals students will

- determine the appropriate reporting technique for their research design and data
- complete the data analysis for their dissertations
- modify results from Atlas.ti and SPSS software to clearly present meaning
- critique social science research results (quantitative and/or qualitative) in scientific research and the popular press

COURSE READINGS/MATERIALS

Required

Optional

TECHNICAL REQUIREMENTS FOR COURSE

This is an online course. Students must have internet access and will use a computer, tablet or phone to communicate, to access online multimedia (audio, video, Flash), and to create multimedia. There will be regular online interaction with the instructor and peers using Blackboard Collaborate. Synchronous sessions require students to have access to a microphone for their device in order to discuss via Collaborate. Students will be expected to have the most current versions of several applications that will be used in this course, including QuickTime, Flash (Mac|Windows), and Java.

INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS

This course will be conducted synchronously where participants will complete required readings prior to regularly scheduled class sessions held through Collaborate. This course will meet via Blackboard Collaborate for eight 3-hour sessions with an additional 160 minutes to be scheduled for group work sessions through Blackboard Collaborate, in person, or any other appropriate venue. It is encouraged that you communicate with other students additionally through the online forums in Blackboard. Face to face sessions may be scheduled if warranted or requested given the availability of meeting times and locations.

INSTRUCTOR RESPONSE TIME

I will provide feedback on your deliverables within approximately two weeks from submission. I will typically respond to emails within 24 hours.

COURSE POLICIES

No points are given for attendance towards determining students’ grades but given the nature of this course, which focuses on discussion and learning from peers, attendance is encouraged during each Collaborate session. Recognizing that life can sometimes get in the way of academics, each session will be recorded providing an opportunity for those who miss class to at least hear what was discussed. Further, recent peer-reviewed articles will be provided by me via our Blackboard room and located by students as part of this course.
EVALUATION POLICIES
The following evaluation of student performance will be employed:
A: 90.0-100%   B: 80.0-89.9%   C: 70.0-79.9%   D: 60.0 – 69.9%   F: below 60.0%

EXPLANATION OF NB/I/W GRADES

This course adheres to the UAF eLearning Procedure regarding the granting of NB Grades. The NB grade is for use only in situations in which the instructor has No Basis upon which to assign a grade. In general, the NB grade will not be granted.

Your instructor follows the University of Alaska Fairbanks Incomplete Grade Policy:

"The letter "I" (Incomplete) is a temporary grade used to indicate that the student has satisfactorily completed (C or better) the majority of work in a course but for personal reasons beyond the student's control, such as sickness, he has not been able to complete the course during the regular semester. Negligence or indifference are not acceptable reasons for an "I" grade."

Successful, Timely Completion of this Course Starting and establishing your progress through this course early can help to encourage your successful completion of the course. Toward this end, this course adheres to the following Center for Distance Education Procedures:

1. The first contact assignment (Introduction) is due one week after the first day of instruction. Failure to submit this assignment within the first two weeks of the course could result in withdrawal from the course.

2. The first content assignment (Lesson 1) is due one week after the first day of instruction. Failure to submit this assignment within the first two weeks of the course could result in withdrawal from the course.

3. Failure to submit the first three content assignments (Assignments 1, 2 and 3) by the deadline for faculty-initiated withdrawals (the ninth Friday after the first day of classes) could result in instructor initiated withdrawal from the course (W).

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

As described by UAF, scholastic dishonesty constitutes a violation of the university rules and regulations and is punishable according to the procedures outlined by UAF. Scholastic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating on an exam, plagiarism, and collusion. Cheating includes providing answers to or taking answers from another student. Plagiarism includes use of another author's words or arguments without attribution. Collusion includes unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing written work for fulfillment of any course requirement. Scholastic dishonesty is a serious offense, will not be tolerated in dissertation work, and is punishable by removal from the course and a grade of "F." For more information go to Student Code of Conduct. (http://www.uaf.edu/catalog/catalog_08-09/academics/regs3.html#Student_Conduct)
