2018 Fall Mentoring Awards

Request for Proposals

Full-time UAF faculty members, postdoctoral researchers and graduate students from all disciplines and campuses are eligible to apply for awards of up to $5,000 for undergraduate research and scholarly learning opportunities.

Funding Options
- Support of undergraduate students involved in research and creative activities
- Support research costs for student fellowships, travel, services and/or supplies that will benefit undergraduate student projects or help establish a recurring opportunity for student projects
  Examples can be found at www.uaf.edu/ursa or www.cur.org
- All funds must be spent no later than June 30, 2019.

Eligibility
- Any full-time faculty member, post-doc or graduate student with a history of collaborating with undergraduate students or a strong desire to work with undergraduate students
- All disciplines from all UAF campuses
- Any full-time faculty member, postdoctoral researcher, or graduate student may apply for a mentor award but they may not receive more than two of these awards in a three-year period. This policy will allow for a greater number of individuals to receive awards from URSA's limited funds.

Criteria for Selection
- Scoring criteria are listed on the URSA website under “Mentor Awards”

Selection process
- Selections will be made by the URSA Review Panel
- All applicants will be notified by email and announced on the URSA website by November 9, 2018
- Awardees are required to complete: a reflection survey of their experience, provide a list of undergraduate students who participated in this project, and require their students to create a poster or display for Research and Creative Activity Day, April 9, 2019

Deadline to apply is October 14, 2018
