INSTRUCTIONS: Make an appointment to meet with your academic advisor after you have written your financial aid SAP appeal. Students enrolled in declared majors and pre-major status should meet with their department academic advisors. General studies (undeclared) and pre-major general studies students should contact the Academic Advising Center academic advisors. If you are not in the area, your academic advisor may be able to discuss your academic plan with you via email or telephone.

Your academic advisor will help you formulate an academic plan detailing the classes you must take and the minimum grades you must earn. The academic plan should cover as many semesters as necessary for you to either meet the SAP standards (2.0 undergraduate or 3.0 graduate GPA and 67% completion rate) or graduate from your degree program, whichever is earliest. The minimum length for an academic plan is two semesters. You will need three copies of your academic plan: one for your academic advisor, one for the Financial Aid Office, and one for you to keep.

The Financial Aid Office will review your progress to verify that you have fulfilled the terms of your academic plan. If you have not followed your academic plan, you will be ineligible for financial aid and any aid you have been awarded may be revoked.
