Presents:

Brushing Up on the Basics of Proposal Submission: An Institutional Perspective

Thursday, December 13, 2018

2:00 – 3:00 pm

Vis Space, WRRB Room 010

Overview:

This session will cover some frequently encountered topics during the proposal stage. We will be covering the institutional perspective to help you gain an understanding of UA/UAF's obligations and requirements, which will ensure a smooth and successful proposal process.

Topics to be Covered:

- OGCA file & email naming conventions
- What OGCA reviews and requires for review
- Proper F&A rates/F&A waivers
- CESU cooperative agreements
- Cost Sharing/Matching
- And more!

Audience:

Staff, Faculty and Students

Additional Note:

This and other OGCA G-CReATE sessions can each be counted as 1.0 credit hour for CRA, CPRA, or CFRA recertification. Note that OGCA does not track these credits, it is the responsibility of the individual.
