STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES
Certificate Healthcare Reimbursement

Students who complete a certificate in Healthcare Reimbursement will:

- Will possess the knowledge and job skills required for entry level employment in biling and coding.
- Prepare students in obtaining further education in medical office management AAS through the Applied Business Department or continue education into medical assistant program.
- Prepare the student to successfully pass the Certified Professional Coder Examination administered by the American Academy of Professional Coders