Dependent Eligibility

- The lawful spouse of the employee, unless legally separated

Please note: Provided all requirements are met as specified by the University of Alaska, wherever "spouse" is stated a financially interdependent partner would also be included. Please contact your regional human resources office for details concerning financially interdependent relationships.

- A "child" 24 years of age or younger. A child is considered one of the following:

- A natural offspring of either or both the employee or spouse
- A legally adopted child of either or both the employee or spouse
- A child for whom the employee has been granted court-appointed legal guardianship; there must be a court order signed by a judge, which grants guardianship of the child to the employee or spouse of the employee as of a specific date. When the court order terminates or expires, the child is no longer an eligible child

- A child for whom the employee or spouse is under a domestic relations order to provide medical benefits as directed by a divorce decree, a medical child support order or other court-ordered dependent coverage
- A foster child living with the employee; there must be a court or other order signed by a judge or state agency, which grants guardianship of the child to the employee or spouse of the employee as of a specific date. When the court order terminates or expires, the child is no longer an eligible child.
- A child “placed” with the employee for the purpose of legal adoption in accordance with state law; placed for adoption means assumption and retention by the employee

SRC AGREEMENT TO PARTICIPATE (Intramural, Sport Club, and Recreational Participants)

- 1.1 I am aware that in participating in intramural, sports club or other recreational activities involves several inherent risks of bodily injury. In consideration to the right to participate in any of these activities, I waive and release any and all rights and claims for damage I may have against the University of Alaska, its Board of Regents, officers, employees and agents, for any and all injuries suffered while participating in any of these activities unless such injury is caused by the gross negligence of the University of Alaska. I give consent to emergency treatment, including hospitalization as may be needed.
- 1.2 I hereby agree to submit any disputes that may arise between myself and the University of Alaska, its agents, servants, and binding arbitration in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association.
- 1.3 I am in good health and able to undertake in an intramural program, sport club, or other recreational activity.
