The UAF School of Management provides a high quality education that prepares students for professional success in meeting the challenges facing businesses in Alaska and around the world.

We embrace experiential learning by encouraging our students to be active participants in their education through involvement in a variety of opportunities beyond the classroom, including student organizations, paid internships and social networking events.

Success in action.
ACCREDITATION

The UAF School of Management holds both business accreditation and specialized accounting accreditation through The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business International (AACSB). This highly sought after dual accreditation has only been achieved by approximately 1.5% of AACSB universities worldwide, and the UAF School of Management is the only university in Alaska with this distinction.

GREAT GRADUATES

• Our students have high CPA pass rates, often higher than the national average.
• School of Management students, on average, have scored better than 91 percent of other students on the Educational Testing Service’s business field exam since 2005, when UAF students first started taking the test. Undergraduates in over 700 U.S. universities take the exam each year.
• We have approximately 700 undergraduate students and 150 graduate students.
• Our graduates earn jobs in top companies.

SUCCESSFUL STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

• Associated Students of Business (ASB) / National Millennial Community (NMC)
• Backcountry Hunters & Anglers (BHA)
• Cadet Club (ROTC)
• Esports Club
• Great Alaskan Accounting People (GAAP)
• International Association of Emergency Managers (IAEM)
• Native Alaskan Business Leaders (NABL)
• UAF Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM)
• Student Investment Fund (SIF), valued at approximately $2.1 million
