Built on an island chain in the Ota River Delta, Hiroshima will always be remembered for the events of August 6, 1945. But in the years since, the city has rebuilt, flourished, and created the Peace Memorial Park. Extend your discoveries of Japan in the lively international city of Hiroshima, a living monument to the human spirit after its total destruction. This memorable extension features a journey to the famous island of Miyajima, a poignant visit to Hiroshima's Peace Memorial, and more.

Day 1, November 13

- As our main journey ends, we depart Kyoto and board a bullet train to Hiroshima. Upon arrival in Hiroshima, we'll check in to our hotel.
- We'll begin our discoveries with a tour of historic Hiroshima, rebuilt after the devastation of August 6, 1945, and now a thriving, healthy city.
- Next, we'll take a brief orientation walk around the neighborhood.

Day 2, November 14

- This morning, we tour to the islands of the Inland Sea, the body of water separating the main Japanese islands of Honshu, Shikoku, and Kyushu, which are cherished by the Japanese because of their beauty and the traditions they have maintained.
- After lunch, we'll visit the Ikuo Hirayama Museum of Art, which displays many works by world-famous Japanese painter Ikuo Hirayama, who was born and spent his boyhood on this island.
- Later, we'll depart for Mihara by hydrofoil and then take a return train back to Hiroshima.

Day 3, November 15

- This morning we'll take a train and a short ferry ride to Miyajima, an island that was once worshipped for its spirituality.
- After lunch, we take the ferry and train back to Hiroshima. The rest of the afternoon is yours to make your own discoveries.
- This evening, we'll toast to our Hiroshima discoveries during a Farewell Dinner at a local restaurant.

Day 4, November 16

- Transfer to the airport for your flight home.
