Classroom: Online in Blackboard

Virtual Hours: 7:00pm-8:00pm MTWR and by appointment

Required Textbooks:

Hattersley, M.E. & McJannet, L. (2008). Management Communication: Principles and Practices, 3rd ed. New York: McGrawHill.

Course Description

COMM F495 Topics: Management Communication is designed for the professional world. It explores the range of communication issues a manager will face in an organizational environment. It addresses enduring issues – goal setting, audience analysis, message creation, managing meetings, diversity, giving & receiving feedback, choosing media, communicating with external audiences, communicating change, personal & corporate ethics, effective writing and speaking, and electronic communication.

Instructional Method: Required Blackboard Applications

This course will be delivered by the Blackboard online learning platform. You will be required to take an exam, post chapter homework and other work, and receive announcements on the Blackboard course website. You will also be able to Blackboard mail the instructor and each other and check your scores on the site as soon as they are posted. You can gain access to Blackboard through any one of the computer labs on campus or on your home computer.

Course materials will be presented in a combination of online instructor discussion, text readings, readings posted on Bb, power point presentations, and student directed threaded discussions.

Prerequisites: Any F100-level communication course or permission of instructor. Support Services: The university library has reference materials on database and texts available for additional clarification of course materials.

Course Goals

This course is evenly divided between principles (how to communicate based on best current research) and practice (cases that put students in the roles of decision-makers and communicators in real business situations). Students will recognize and demonstrate communication skills based on business management-centered instruction and discussion that acknowledges that effective management communication is a critical thinking process that involves creating, organizing, selecting, and interpreting messages in a managerial context.

Student Outcomes

- 1. Understand how to set reasonable goals.
- 2. Know how to create effective oral and written presentations.

- 3. Know how to organize and manage meetings.
- 4. Know how to develop realistic options for resolving conflict.
- 5. Understand how to give and receive feedback.
- 6. Be able to effectively communicate with external audiences.
- 7. Understand ethics and its relationship to management.

Participation in Blackboard

This class is offered online. Posting in Blackboard is required on the Discussion Board. You must post all assignments and homework in Blackboard. Late postings will not be accepted. See schedule below. You cannot pass this course if you fail to submit, on time, 3 or more Chapter Case Studies or you fail to participate in 3 or more Threaded discussions. No late papers will be accepted for credit. Threaded discussions require a minimum of 250 words per session, per student. The instructor will post threads for discussion for each on line session.

Grading Criteria

Chapter Case Studies 11 @ 25 pts. =	250 pts.
Threaded discussions $-15 @ 30 \text{ pts.}$	450 pts.
Final Comprehensive Exam	250 pts.
	950 pts.

The lowest graded Case Study will be omitted (10 out of 11 case studies).

COURSE/PROFESSOR POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Each week you will be required to participate in discussion exercises in Blackboard Threaded discussions. See schedule below. Threaded discussion postings are graded based on the quality of the information you provide as well as the quality of your writing and thoroughness of your answers. Your postings, homework, etc. is due by Sunday evening at midnight. The new week begins on Monday 12:01am and ends at Sunday midnight.

1. You must do the reading on time and have your books available when responding in Threaded discussions.

- 2. The instructor will post the Threaded discussion questions according to the schedule.
- 3. You must answer the questions posted by the instructor in the Threaded discussion.
- 4. You must summarize parts of the text, when asked by the instructor, and present a summary to the class on the Threaded discussion.
- 5. You must post your Case Study answers in the appropriate Bb drop box on time. Late submission will not be accepted.
- 6. You must complete the final comprehensive exam on Bb during its designated time. There are no make up exams.

Chapter Case Studies

Homework assignments are in the form of Chapter Case Studies, which will be due according to assigned times. No late assignments will be accepted. Writing criteria for Chapter Case Studies include:

- 1. Correct grammar
- 2. Concise and logical writing style
- 3. Fully developed answers to each question. Please avoid: refer to previous answer or see above.
- 4. At the discretion of the instructor, points will be deducted for spelling, grammatical, and syntactical errors.

Academic Dishonesty

The Communication Department refers its students to the Student Handbook concerning plagiarism and other acts of academic dishonesty. The unacknowledged use of the ideas of others is a serious offense that can result in failure, as is cheating in any form. If you are caught performing an academic dishonest act, you will receive a grade of F for the course.

Final Exam

The final exam is premised on the text and assigned Bb readings. It will consist of multiple choice, matching, and/or true/false questions.

Extra Credit: I do not offer extra credit so please do not ask for it.

Incomplete Grade Assignment: I do not issue incomplete grades.

Students with Disabilities – Please note Disability Services provide a variety of services to assure equal access for all students. Interpreting services, educational assistants, note taking, and exam accommodations for students are the most frequently provided accommodations. The staff of Disability Services works with faculty and students in arranging appropriate services in the classroom. Questions should be directed to the Director of Disability Services at (907)-474-5655. http://www.uaf.edu/disability/.

Tentative Course Schedule and Topical Outline – SUBJECT TO CHANGES

NOTE: Readings, homework, postings, etc. are chapter specific, however, you have a full three weeks to complete Chapters #1-8 and a full three weeks to complete Chapters #9-15.
