MOTION:

The UAF Faculty Senate moves to form the Student Extended Leave Policy (SELP) ad hoc committee to develop policy to benefit students who need to take an extended leave.

EFFECTIVE: Fall 2018
upon Chancellor acknowledgement

RATIONALE: Currently, there is no Faculty Senate policy that guides faculty or students when students need to take an extended leave of absence from their coursework, e.g. for bereavement, to care for a critically ill family member, to move for military deployment, and other reasons. Charter members may include:

Victoria Smith, Director of Student Support Services
Sine Anahita, Faculty Senate (and convener)
Chiebuka Lebechi, ASUAF member
Keith Champagne, Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs (invited)
